Record number of Pinnacle volunteers ready to help Habitat for Humanity

SEATTLE – About 50 employees are prepared to spend a day with hammers and nails when Pinnacle, an American Management Services Company, participates in a Habitat for Humanity projects throughout the month of June.

Pinnacle, a national leader in real estate management and brokerage, employs about 100 in its Seattle headquarters.

“I’m pleased by enthusiasm and participation we’re getting from employees,” said Stan Harrelson, Pinnacle’s president and CEO, “Because residential property is the core of our business, people quickly recognize that Habitat for Humanity is a great match for us.”

Pinnacle volunteers will be building at Othello Place’s 2 three-story 6-plexes and 3 single-family homes in Seattle’s Beacon Hill neighborhood.

This is the first time Pinnacle’s Seattle office has volunteered on a Habitat for Humanity project.

Seattle-based Pinnacle, an American Management Services LLC company, manages more than 125,000 multifamily units and 9 million square feet of commercial space nationwide. The company provides owners and investors with a broad scope of services including, acquisition, disposition, rehabilitation, property management, leasing financing and repositioning of real estate assets. Pinnacle manages an international portfolio valued at more than $7 billion from four regional offices and 30 branch offices across the U.S.
