Pinnacle Welcomes Kin Oldham as New Central Region President

DALLAS – Pinnacle, an international real estate management firm, recently welcomed Joel (Kin) Oldham IV as its new central region president, effective September 2. Oldham will direct the region's operations and growth, and will be responsible for the management of all of its commercial, multifamily, brokerage and public housing. Pinnacle's central region, headquartered in Dallas, includes Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, and Wisconsin.

Oldham succeeds Rick Graf as central region president; Graf was recently appointed president of Pinnacle.

"Kin brings a wealth of experience to Pinnacle and will have a tremendous impact on our future success in the central region," says Graf.

Oldham has two decades of experience in real estate management. For the last 15 years, Oldham served as managing director and regional partner for Greystar Real Estate Partners in Dallas. As director of the regional operating company, his purview included Austin and Dallas metroplexes. Oldham first worked in real estate as a marketing director for Trammel Crow Company. He was also vice president and an asset manager for Starwood Capital Partners and was instrumental in closing Starwood's multifamily portfolio into Equity Residential Properties Trust's IPO.

Oldham earned a Bachelors of Business Administration from the University of Oklahoma in 1984. He currently serves as secretary of the executive board and vice chairman of the legislative committee for the Apartment Association of Greater Dallas.
