Pinnacle Welcomes New IT Director of Professional Services

DALLAS – Pinnacle, an international real estate management firm, recently welcomed Brian Galla as its new Director of Professional Services in its Information Technology department. Galla will be responsible for overseeing Pinnacle’s technical training and support operations.

“Brian’s significant experience directing technology and knowledge of management operations will be an asset in identifying and implementing improvements to our support systems,” said Ed Wolff, chief administrative officer.

Galla joins Pinnacle from Lincoln Property Company where he was director of technology for eight years. Galla developed and implemented Lincoln’s first integrated corporate intranet/extranet system. He also oversaw the development of the infrastructure needed to support the addition of 28,000 military family homes to Lincoln’s portfolio. Galla was first employed by Lincoln in 1993.

Galla attended Virginia Tech and George Mason University. He was listed in the National Multi Housing Council’s “Top 20 Up and Coming” in 2006.
