Pinnacle Welcomes Commercial Investment Manager Bob Petrich

IRVINE, Calif. – Pinnacle, an international real estate management firm, recently hired Commercial Investment Manager Bob Petrich. Petrich will be responsible for the commercial property management operations and new commercial management business development for the West Region. Petrich will be focused on managing and growing business in the San Diego area. Formerly a member of Pinnacle’s brokerage department, Petrich most recently worked as a partner for RTC Enterprises/Solutions Property Management where he was responsible for both commercial and residential management.

“We are thrilled to have Bob on our team,” said Stephen Winsby, vice president, Southern California Region. “His 20 years of management experience will be an invaluable asset as we expand our West Region commercial management operations.”

Petrich conducted shopping center sales and leasing when he worked for Pinnacle from 1999 to 2004. He also served as a Vice President for La Cresta Construction and Development in Phoenix, Arizona, where he has responsible for new home financing and sales. Petrich first conducted shopping center sales and leasing for Voit Commercial.

Petrich was a professional football player for six years; he played for the San Diego Chargers, Buffalo Bills, and Toronto Argonauts. He earned his Bachelor of Science in marketing from San Diego State University.
