Pinnacle Promotes Christine Burnett to National Training Director

SEATTLE – American Management Services, dba Pinnacle, proudly announces the promotion of Christine Burnett to national training director at company headquarters in Seattle, Washington. Christine will lead the corporate training department in creating and disseminating training programs for all employees within the company. Reporting to the chief of staff, she will directly supervise all regional training directors.

“Christine embodies the character, experience and expertise required to effectively fulfill the role of national training director,” said Dave Williams, Pinnacle chief of staff.

Christine’s career in property management spans 13 years. Previously she worked for Equity Residential Properties where she was responsible for training all corporate employees at headquarters and 60 property locations throughout Seattle and Portland. In 2005, Christine joined Pinnacle as a national trainer responsible for business software training for all employees at apartment communities and military bases managed by Pinnacle.
